The availability of cheap energy has fundamentally transformed our global society. Use your body and mind wisely in the service of the self, that is all. Although not included in the documentation related to the Perez family case, there is recorded evidence testifying to the fact that when on July 24, Dominican friar Juan Maldonado initiated a second survey to some merchants in Manila with the purpose of discovering more Judeo-conversos who were living in the city, more Judeo-converso names came to light. Initially, this may sound like an attempt to trivialise the subject matter.
