But the bigger question is not whether American standards are lower than those in Britain, but why food standards across the world have been allowed to sink so dramatically. While there is an increasing number of high-quality publications in this field, many fundamental questions remain unsolved.

American Exceptionalism in Crime and Punishment

It is, however, doubtful if the adventures of the knight of la Mancha would have got past the Index had not the Church been called in in the person of the parish priest who in the end burns the poor hero's books of romance; and from that point of view Cervantes may be regarded as simply drawing the cord of conventional morality closer round the necks of the unfortunate public.
